Buchan, Gilbert	Sergeant	Fraserborough Police	12, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 44, 48, 49, 181, 190, 191, 192, 193, 230, 231, 233, 238, 239, 241	101 hotline put them in contact with Sgt Buchan. Summons Brian to Peterhead Police Stn where he gave a statement ( not signed) to two inexperienced officers including PC Lamont. Simultaneously Buchan met with Petersham & Low at Fraserburgh Police Stn. The next day Buchan & Lamont visited Docherty house and he tried to dissuade them from further action. Buchan suspected of altering subject of Lamont's report from Alan Low to the Dochertys themselves.
Campbell, ?			237	Mentioned.

Carberry, Harry	Official	British Consulate	225	Conspired with Maria Houston to forbid the Dochertys from contacting the British Embassy in Ireland directly, reportedly on the advice of TUSLA's legal department.
Colgan, Niall		Department of Justice and Equality	16	Recipient of multiple letters pointing out the Justice Minister's duty to defend the rule of law.
Cordner, Graham	Detective Chief Inspector	Police Scotland	61	Sent e-mail requesting the Dochertys' attendance at the Police Stn, also their address in order to arrange a house call.
Crawford, Elish	TUSLA Team Leader	St Conal's Mental Health Hospital	223	Recipient of letter (reproduced).
Cronin, Val	Clerk	Letterkenny District Court	155, 244, 245	Unlawfully acted as registrar for Judge Kelly.
Dalrymple, Catriona	Head of Policy	Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service	238, 240	Aware of the Docherty case and related allegations of criminal misconduct by DS Sam Buchan and DS Martin MacDougall of Police Scotland.
Daly, Nicola	Solicitor	Irish Social Services	196
Deeney, Joanne	Autism Specialist	HSE Donegal	223, 224, 225	Visited the Dochertys' holiday home with two Garda and one other woman following surveillance activity. Told the Dochertys they could have telephone access to their children but only if they attended a psychiatric assessment, then later denied this.
Dempsey, ?	Police Officer		112	Testified in court that the Docherty raid was the worst thing he'd ever taken part in and that he didn't want to be a part of anything like that ever again.
Denham, Susan	Chief Justice of Ireland		155, 162, 176, 227	Ruled that the Dochertys could not appeal the children's remaining in care because they had agreed to this in court (untrue). Conferred with Judge Haughton. Instructed registrars in the High Court to stop the Dochertys' appeals.
Devins, Mary	Judge	Mayo District Court	79, 223	Ruled that the Dochertys' problems only started when they reported the paedophile and ordered the children returned into their care. Reprimanded Malee for priming medical staff against the Dochertys.

Docherty, Alexandra				b. 2002
Docherty, Brian
Docherty, Charlotte				b. 2010
Docherty, Christian				b. 2014 East Lodge Crimonmogate
Docherty, Janice
Docherty, Sebastian				b. 2009 Autistic
Ferguson, ?			220	Mentioned in Brian’s letter to Kate Frame of PIRC.
Finegan, Liza	Solicitor	VP McMullin	121, 128, 133, 187, 224, 254	Denied the Dochertys access to the notes detaining their children in care. Dictated rulings which the judge merely repeated as the court’s ruling: banned from discussing the case; psychiatric evaluation; stop naming individuals complained about (nothing at all about the children!). Refused to commit to paper the temporary relocation of the Social Work Department to St Conal’s mental health hospital for the sole purpose of tricking the Dochertys into being certified.
Fitzgerald, Frances	Minister for Justice & Equality	Irish Government	16, 17, 102, 104, 110, 129, 182, 244	Former social worker. Via Niall Colgan denied her responsibility for defending justice and the rule of law.
Ford, David	Justice Secretary	Northern Ireland	226	CC’d on Brian’s letter to Elish Crawford (TUSLA Team Leader at St Conal’s Mental Health Hospital).
Forkan, John	Sergeant		104, 105, 111, 254	Turned up claiming he had a warrant to seize the children but refused to show it. Alex said Forkan looked at her with such anger she was afraid for her safety. Connected to Irish Army Intelligence. Any relationship to Maria Houston?
Frame, Kate	Commissioner	Police Investigations & Review Commissioner	198, 211, 218, 222	Upheld 11 of 12 points of complaint.
Gallagher, Patsy	Solicitor		132, 133, 154	Refused to meet the Dochertys pre-trial. With Molony, O’Shea and Judge Kelly, entered the courtroom into which the Dochertys were barred from entering, misrepresented them by agreeing to the children being taken into care, against his clients' explicit instructions.

Gaughan, Lorraine	Social Worker		76	With Mary Malee, primed Dr Ciarán Smyth against the Dochertys in order to get them sectioned.
Gormley, Philip	Chief Constable	Police Scotland	12, 54, 55, 182, 221, 229, 231, 239, 240, 241, 248	Was Chief Operations Officer of National Crime Agency when it refused a Subject Access Request. Refused to take action despite numerous complaints re. the Docherty Case.
Green, Robert			235, 241, 248	Relentlessly persecuted north and south of the Scottish border for supporting Holly Greig and her mother. Arrested in his home in England by officers from Police Scotland.
Greig, Hollie			186, 241	Downs Syndrome sufferer abused by multiple high-placed individuals. She named them all but the police never investigated. Instead the Government issued a D-Notice.
Griffiths, Siân			234	Collated details of every allegation and document relating to North Wales child abuse and subsequent Waterhouse Inquiry.
Hackett, Evan	Private Secretary		115	PS to Gordon Jeyes. Sent e-mail saying the Dochertys' complaints would be investigated – they weren't.
Hamilton, George	Chief Constable	PSNI	13, 123, 124	Previously Deputy Chief Constable under Sir Stephen House. Hamilton's staff sergeant replied to the Dochertys' complaint about intense surveillance that "PSNI does not discuss intelligence matters " [emphasis added].
Haughton, Robert	Judge		176, 177	Refused the Docherty's writ of Habeas Corpus without offering a legal justification. Conferred with Judge Kelly & Chief Justice Denham.
House, Sir Stephen	Chief Constable	Police Scotland	13, 54, 99, 114, 123, 138, 212, 241, 249	Resigned following months of protest over his decision to routinely arm hundreds of police officers and other failures with lethal results.
Houston   Heuston, Maria	Ex Parole Officer		134, 224, 225, 254	Masqueraded as a social worker. Refused to meet the Dochertys to discuss their children's specific needs. Refused to give her contact details. Refused to give any information about the children or reassurances their wellbeing. Refused to allow meeting with the foster parents. Possibly 'caring' for Christian. Conspired with Harry Carberry to prevent the Dochertys from contacting the British Embassy.

Jeyes, Gordon	Chief Executive	TUSLA	115, 121, 224, 226	Sacked for taking children into Cambridgeshire County Council, moved to Ireland after he was investigated on BBC Panorama. Ordered Liza Finnegan to instruct the Dochertys to attend an assessment by a TUSLA-nominated psychiatrist. Henchwoman Mary Malee.
Johnson, Ritchie	Director of Social Work	Aberdeenshire Council	45, 230, 232, 233	Failed to acknowledge receipt of home education certificate by recorded delivery.
Jones, Malcolm	Detective Chief Inspector	Grampian Police	113, 115, 154	Head of Sex Crimes. Due to testify against the Dochertys by video link.
Kelly, Paul	Judge		119, 122, 133, 154, 155, 156, 176, 225, 226, 227, 244, 245, 254	Presided over corrupt hearings, perjury, lack of due process, procedural violations. Overturned a previous court ruling returning the children to their parents and ordered the children removed once again, denying Janice the right to address the court. Ordered Brian to remove 37 videos from YouTube including 36 irrelevant political commentaries. Presided at an appeal against his own previous decision. Held a special hearing when the courtroom was ordinarily closed. Party to the pretence that the Dochertys had agreed to the removal of their children, thus defeating their appeal hearing. Allowed court clerk to act as Registrar. Dochertys not allowed a copy of Kelly's signed statement. Kelly denied them a further appeal hearing. Instrumental in persuading Judge Haughton to unlawfully deny their subsequent writ of Habeas Corpus. According to Deeney, Kelly proposed the Dochertys meet Deeney and Molony in Northern Ireland to reassure them regarding attempts to have them sectioned.
Kennedy, C W			198	A colleague of Alan Low's.
Kenny, Enda	Taoiseach (Prime Minister)	Irish Government	66, 97, 98, 102, 104, 110, 129, 182	Kenny's constituency is Castlebar. Kenny & Dr James Reilly were the only addressees of all MPs in 3 states to receive Docherty's e-mailed message about corruption. Docherty contacted by a whole range of individuals who tried to obtain details of what and how the Dochertys' knew. Two days after they sent the e-mail, 8 armed Garda and 5 social workers turned up to kidnap the children.

Lamb, Prof Michael	Chair	Scottish Child Abuse Inquiry	235, 236	Resigned the Chair, having complained of micromanagement and constant interference by the Scottish Government.
Lamont, Kathryn	Police Constable	Fraserborough Police	12, 36, 42, 47, 49, 192, 193, 195, 230, 238	Ignorant of contents of a Concern Report she allegedly wrote to Social Services, unseen by the Dochertys.
Low, Alan	Detective Constable	Peterhead Police CID	12, 24, 25, 30, 32, 35, 36, 38, 39, 40, 41, 49, 82, 93, 189, 190, 198, 229, 230, 232, 248	The alleged paedophile: offered £25k for sexual access to Sebastian. One-time Community Beat Officer Fraserburgh North. Teenage boy lodgers. Smokes dope. Drinks beer while driving at speed. Digs up Crimonmogate Estate in the middle of the night. Professed a dislike of Viscount Petersham. Police Scotland failed to deny that Low is a serving police officer. Attended meeting in March 2015 with Sgt. Buchan & Viscount Petersham at Fraserburgh Police Station.
MacDonald, Linda Ellis	Enquiries Officer	Children's Commission for Scotland	242	Tam Baillie's Enquiries Officer.
MacDougall, Martin	[-Detective] Sergeant	Police Scotland	13, 58, 80, 83, 86, 219, 238, 239, 241	The 'Nominated Perjurer'. Revealed in court that Scottish & Irish govts met 4 times in 6 weeks on this case. Committed perjury in Irish court against the Dochertys & their mental health, and in favour of Alan Low. Left CID to become plain Sgt.
Mackay, Amanda-Jane ('Midge')	Chief Inspector	Police Scotland Professional Standards Dept. (North)	39, 114, 189, 218	Her report revealed that Petersham & Low had met with Buchan at Fraserburgh Police Stn. Author of the 'balance of probability... allegation not upheld' response to Dochertys' complaints. Lives in Aberdeen with her husband, a Martin J. Mackay (possibly the DI McKay below?)
Mackay, ?	Detective [+Chief] Inspector			Requested more time to do a comprehensive report on the Dochertys complaints then e-mailed Social Services in Ireland re. concerns about Brian's mental health and that the family had been referred as missing and the parents as mentally disturbed.

Malee, Mary	Lead Social Worker	Child & Family Agency, Tusla	60, 65, 67, 71, 74, 76, 77, 80, 81, 115, 116, 121, 223, 254	Gordon Jeyes’ henchwoman. Revealed that police followed Dochertys from Enniskillen to Castlebar. Shouted at Alex saying that they would never see their parents again unless they showed her more respect. Promised a quick independent paediatric assessment but immediately went with her manager to a judge in Ballina to get an Emergency Care Order. Admitted that the children passed all the reports but that they’d decided to put them into care regardless, based on information from Scotland. Also revealed that the entire Social Work Department in Castlebar (22 people) had been cleared for three days to process our family as the “number one priority”. At Castlebar Hospital, Malee went with Lorraine Gaughan to the Psychiatric Dept. presumably to prime Dr Ciarán Smyth and other medical staff to get the Dochertys sectioned – as she subsequently admitted in court, for which she was reprimanded by Judge Devins. In court Malee uttered a series of vicious insinuations, lies and slander – she was caught in a lie on several occasions. The Dochertys submitted a detailed complaint about Malee to the Department of Children and Families. They learnt that Malee had close friends in social work and education in Scotland. Sent from Mayo to Donegal to respond to Dochertys’ surveillance complaint.
Maria, Phil	Social Worker	Irish Social Services	225	Turned up at the monastery in Northern Ireland where the Dochertys had sought refuge, inquiring as to their whereabouts.
Massie, Scott	Sergeant		198	DC Alan Low’s commander.
May, Teresa	Home Secretary	UK Government	212, 214, 235	Dochertys sent e-mails detailing their case. Ms May denied any responsibility for the Docherty case but forwarded the complaints to Police Scotland.

McBrearty, Frank Jnr	Councillor	Donegal County Council	129, 130, 132, 134, 140	Coarse & scary. Not interested in Dochertys' story, instead just bragged about his underworld connections and that his father is an Irish gangster who got away with murder. Kept a handgun in a stove at his Raphoe home. McBrearty recommended a corrupt solicitor, Patsy Gallagher.
McBride, Fred	Chief Executive	TUSLA	182, 226	Continued predecessor Gordon Jeyes' agenda of persecuting the Dochertys. Consistently dismisses letters of concern regarding the Dochertys' wellbeing with the line that TUSLA does not comment on individual cases.
McDaid, Gabrielle	Social Worker		103, 134, 224, 225, 254	Masqueraded as a social worker having been removed from the register of social workers in Northern Ireland and not registered in the Republic. Along with Maria Houston, refused to meet the Dochertys to discuss their children's specific care needs and refused to give their contact details. Refused to give them any information on their children or reassure them about their wellbeing or to meet with their foster parents.
McKenna, Kevin	Journalist		246, 248, 249	Wrote extensively about corruption in Police Scotland and the Scottish Government's failure to do anything about it.
McLaughlin, Father Éamonn	Priest	St Eunan's, Letterkenny	129, 139	Introduced the Dochertys to Cllr McBrearty on the basis that he'd dealt with his own problems with the Garda.
Molony, Patricia	Guardian ad litem		133, 152, 160, 183, 224, 225, 226, 255	Told Alex their parents didn't want them anymore. Wrote in glowing terms about the children's qualities and abilities and the parents' love for them. Delayed informing the Dochertys that telephone access to the children had been granted, only to deny it later. Present at the bogus hearing from which the Dochertys were excluded and according to Judge Kelly, consented to their children's remaining in care.
Murray, Jack	Child Protection Team	Scottish Government	14, 228, 253	Habitually failed to address points in multiple letters to First Minister and responded that she has no powers to intervene in Police or Social Security matters.
O'Brien, Susan	QC	Scottish Child Abuse Inquiry	235, 236	Ditto

O'Hagan, John D.	Judge		122, 155, 156	At an appeal hearing sent clerk Val Cronin upstairs to collect Judge Kelly's false statement that the Dochertys had agreed to the removal of their children, which defeated the appeal.
O'Malley, Bríd	General Practitioner	Castlebar Medical Centre	67, 68, 75, 76	Dochertys persuaded to see her as a prerequisite to getting their children back, at which meeting she revealed that the 'Scotland notes' included Phyllis Smart's report alleging that Brian's [dead!] father was a paedophile who was abusing Alexandra. Tried to trick the Dochertys into seeing a psychiatrist – even admitted that she had pre-planned this. Stated that she did not believe the 'money-for-paedophilic access' allegations. Wrote a damning report (disallowed by the judge) but refused to turn up in court to back it up.
O'Neill, David	Manager of Social Services	Fraserburgh	41, 42, 45, 47	Refused to speak on 'phone re. why social workers sent to house. Later revealed by e-mail that a Concern Report against family had been submitted by Police Scotland. Lied by e-mail claiming non-receipt of home education certificate by recorded delivery & signed for by Summers.
O'Shea, Hilda-Clare	Solicitor	St John Solicitors, Dublin	133, 187	Patricia Molony's solicitor. Also present at the above hearing.
Penning, Mike	MP	UK Government	212	Dochertys sent e-mails detailing their case.
Reilly, Dr James	Minister for Children and Families	Ireland	97, 110, 115, 129, 255	Other than Enda Kenny, the only addressee of an e-mail to all MPs in 3 states to actually acknowledge receipt. Known bad debtor, defended by Enda Kenny for his part in an unfulfilled contract to purchase a property.
Robinson, Shona	Secretary of State for Health	Scottish Government	70
Rustige, Timothy	International human rights activist		248	Arrested in his home in England by officers from Police Scotland. Charged with cyber-stalking for publicly questioning ex-Procurator Fiscal Elish Angiolini's suitability for appointment as Principal of St Hugh's College, Oxford.

Salmond, Alex	First Minister	Scottish Government	66
Silk, Miriam	Chief Executive	Irish Psychiatry	78	Lied to the Dochertys about the non-existence of a list of private psychiatrists in Ireland. Silk recommended a Dublin hospital for the assessment, which they did not attend.
Smart, Phyllis	Nurse Consultant (Child Protection)	NHS Grampian	68, 69, 70, 101	Chair of the Child Protection Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Professions Scotland Shared Community. Without ever having met any of the Dochertys, wrote a false and libellous report alleging that Brian was in contact with his [dead!] father who was a paedophile and was abusing Alexandra. Refused to speak to the UK Column about her bogus report. NHS Grampian admitted in writing that Police Scotland solicited Smart to write the report but refused to supply a copy.
Smith   Smyth, Bridgeen	Manager	TUSLA Letterkenny	152, 160, 224, 254	Issued ultimatum – submit to our psychiatric assessment or never see your children again. A ruse to get the Dochertys sectioned. Wife of Regional Director John Smith/Smyth?
Smith, Clare	Sergeant	Police union rep	48	PC Lamont’s Union Representative
Smyth, Dr Ciarán	Psychiatrist	Castlebar Hospital	76, 77, 82, 223, 254	Mary Malee sent a mental health nurse to offer a ‘free’ psychiatric assessment from Smyth.
Stanhope, Candida	Viscountess Petersham		34, 36, 38	While Brian at Peterhead Police Stn, the Viscountess turned up at the Docherty’s house shouting through letterbox and thumping on windows. Janice didn’t answer.
Stanhope, William	Viscount Petersham		12, 23, 24, 28, 29, 30, 31, 39, 82, 93, 117, 181, 190, 193, 194, 229, 230, 232, 233, 250, 252	Brother of Sarah Armstrong-Jones whose husband Viscount Linley is Queen Elizabeth II’s nephew. Lives at Crimonmogate House with his wife Candida, with whom he has two children. Initially professed that he did not know but disapproved of Alan Low then later claimed he was a good friend. Angered when the Dochertys revealed they’d reported Alan Low to the National Crime Agency. Anxious for also present estate agent Kerry not to hear details of Low’s overtures. Threatened to get the Police and Social Services onto them if they reported to the Police. Tried to evict them citing overcrowding but Kerry contradicted him as she did know of the occupancy. He never returned the deposit. Large closed-gate gathering of expensive cars at Crimonmogate House an hour after Brian phoned the police.

Sturgeon, Nicola	First Minister	Scottish Government	14, 15, 88, 102, 104, 110, 182, 212, 240, 246	Saw fit to intervene in the Brain deportation case and others but then claims no competency with Docherty issues.
Summers, ?		Social Services	45	Signed for Home Education Certificate delivery
Taylor, Lesley	Social Worker	Aberdeenshire Council	80	Testified in court that the Dochertys were delusional even though she had never met them.
Traynor, Janet	Producer	RTÉ Special Investigations Unit	127, 147, 149	Professed interest and belief in the Dochertys' story but unable to corroborate as FOI requests were denied. A week later RTÉ wanted to see relevant e-mails but seemed to be trying to obtain the Dochertys' passwords. RTÉ's enthusiasm evaporated and they tried to persuade the Dochertys to see a psychiatrist of their recommending. Skeptical about the photo of Christian's black eye received while in care, although Pam (see next) could see it.
Trearty, Dennis	Estate Agent		139, 159	Acted as Garda informant. Brian had photographic evidence of Trearty letting burglars into their home. Camera later stolen.
Villiers, Theresa	Secretary of State for Northern Ireland		226	Ditto
Woods, Carol			186, 235	Relentlessly persecuted for refusing to cooperate in the falsification of child protection records and for her subsequent whistleblowing.
?, Kerry	Estate Agent	Brown & MacRae	29, 30, 31	Turned up at Crimonmogate House at the same time as the Dochertys, to meet Naomi (who wasn't there).
?, Naomi	PA	Viscount Petersham	29
?, Neil &amp; Karen	Friends	Edinburgh	161, 168	Paid for hotels for the Dochertys.

?, Pam	Lead Researcher	RTÉ Special Investigations Unit	127, 147, 149	Janet Traynor's lead researcher.
?, Paul			147	Janet Traynor's boss.
?	Children's Reporter		45	Failed to acknowledge receipt of home education certificate by recorded delivery.
?		Garda Ombudsman	91, 92	Wanted to arrest Brian Docherty for making a complaint!
